At times yesterday the cotton market as almost excited. Large blocks changed and and it was evident that big speculative or trade interests were again beactive. The feature was heavy leading spot brokers during the roon hour. It was estimated around the ring that from 10.78 down to 10.75 for Januthese brokers sold not less than 50,000 ings and their source the cotton was re-markably well taken and it seemed to be a general impression that there was a conerable demand from spinners through The failure of the market to break increased covering as soon as the prices rallied quite sharply The market opened 6 to 9 points lower in 2 to 13 points net lower on the midday fgures of last night and closed very steady et 2 points higher to 3 points lower. ulf storm may have helped the late rally, but lacked confirmation and a break of 6 or 7 points in New Orleans after the local close indicated that no danger to the erop was threatened.

It was rumored yesterday that leading bearish spot and trade interests were reiter-ating predictions of a considerably lower It may be possible that these reterations of bearish convictions and the nore aggressive selling were calculated to iscourage the demand which was beginning o appear from spinners who may be outside the particular friends of the more erial values has apparently reached a point where it is beginning to unsettle trade conditions. Cotton yarns have aleady felt the influence of lower raw cotton ad prices have been reduced on certain Manufacturers of cotton goods are said to have made a stand against any shading of prices, and the courage of the rade is being stimulated by the expression optimistic opinions, talk of light stocks in the hands of jobbers and of a good re-sil trade in the interior. Notwithstanding this bold front, however, continued weakeries in the raw material threatens to inrto noted in the market for cotton goods ith equanimity by mills who have acted bearish advices, others may be in rested in seeing a steadier market, and is may account for the apparent presence buying orders from spinners in the ands of some trade interests, while others ive claimed to see little evidence of mill emand and have figured as leading sellers. Beyond the Gulf storm rumors, yester-y's weather news showed no particular hange or feature. A private crop report saged by a Wall Street house making the opdition 74.6, against 78.6 last month, incated rather more than the anticipated agust deterioration, but seemed to intre no fresh sentiment regarding the op outlook, and it is perhaps a question s much support at 10% cents had it not een for the approaching holidays and the Proximity of the Government report.

wheat closed without any marked change in prices, but the trend was upward in the main, and at one time prices were I to 1%. higher than at the close on the previous Sentiment was more friendly to the long side than recently, owing to the liberal cash demand of late, though yesterday's trading in the real article was comparatively small. Not a few, however, contend that England as well as some other European countries will have to turn to America this season and buy considerably more than they are wont to. However that may be, the recent free buying for export eccount was a factor of no small impor-tance in yesterday's advance. Then, too rather heavy rains were reported in parts of the American and Canadian Northwest The milling demand at the Northwest was described as good, while Liverpool was stronger than expected, rising % to %d., and Berlin rose % to 1c. Commission houses bought freely at times, cash interests made purchases and shorts covered.

On the rise, however, heavy realizing occurred, and much of the improvemen was lost before the close. There was some elling for short account, too, on the falling off yesterday in the export demand, while liberal receipts, and expectations of a large movement of spring wheat to market in the not distant future also encouraged some to put out short lines. The primary receipts were 1,284,000 bush., against 942,000 on the previous day and 962,000 last year Paris fell 1% to 2%c. and Budapest 1%c. Corn advanced, though all of the rise was not retained at the close. The cash demand was reported good at the West, with prices

English Bank Rate. Most of the foreign correspondents have been advising their connections on this side during the past few days that the Bank of England will probably advance its minimum discount rate at the regular weekly meeting of the governors to-day. The present rate is 3 per cent., and it is said that it will be raised to 2½ per cent., or as shorts covered. Realizing caused a recession late in the day. Liverpool advanced that it will be raised to 3½ per cent. On that it will be raised to 3½ per cent. The basis some predict, even to 4 per cent. The basis for these prophecies seems to be the distance of the per cent. On the basis of the per cent. On the per last year.

Oats followed in the path of other cereals, advancing early and then receding. Receipts were liberal, but so was the demand for the real grain, and cash prices at some points were ½, to ½c. higher. > awaited with no little interest in Wall Stree ecause of rumors that the directors would take the opportunity to recommend the authorization of a substantial increase in the capital stock. There have been no official intimations that any such action would be taken. It was not even certain esterday that a quorum could be obtained although the presence in the city of the president of the road was thought to trengthen the probabilities on the latte core. Yet the Louisville and Nashville nd Atlantic Coast Line stocks made a dem onstration of strength in the early trading which stock market gossip did not fail to attribute to coming favorable events a co-day's meeting.

THE CURB MARKET.

There was a decided enlargement of business on the curb market yesterday, but the increase in activity was largely confined to one or two issues in the industrial department. United States Motor preferred and common were both under heavy pressure. The preferred broke from 17 to 13½ under heavy offerings, closing at the bottom, and the common went from 4½ to 3½. On the other hand British-American Tobacco was equally conspicuous for its firmness. This stock consend at 23½ and 100 for subject to terming more thousand dollars ($2.500.000) on the entire property of the company, which is earning more than twice the amount of its fixed charges.

This stock opened at 23½, an advance of ½ of a point, and rose rapidly Washington, D. C. upon heavy purchases until it reached 24% Thereafter there was a slight reaction on profit taking. United Cigar Stores was also very firm. A slightly easier tendency developed in some of the leading mining shares which have lately advanced, but there were some exceptions to the general

THE WEATHER FORECAST

WASHINGTON PREDICTIONS FOR TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

For eastern New York, New Eng-and and New Jersey, probably howers to-day; fair to-morrows light to moderate variable winds. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The high pressure had its centre over the middle Atlantic States yesterday and caused a drop in tem-perature from 8 to 18 degrees and showers in the afternoon. It was moving eastward and was being followed by a storm which was central over Minnesota, spreading into the lake regions, and was attended by some high winds and rain in the upper Mississippi Valey and the northern sections of the great lakes and was attended by a general rise of temperature in the central States and Objo Valley. A accord disturbance appears to be developing on the Gulf coast, but as yet only light scattered showers have fallen in the Gulf States.

It was considerably colder in the extreme Northwest and in the central Rocky Moun-tain regions. Fair weather prevailed gener-ally in the interior of the country save for one or two scattered showers. one or two scattered showers.

In this city the morning was fair, with showers in the afternoon, due to cooler weather; the wind was fresh southwest and shifting; average humidity, 62 per cent; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 5 A. M., 50.06; 3 P. M., 29.29.

The temperature in this city yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, is shown in the annexed table;
